

SECRETARY OF WAR AND MRS. BAKER ARE MOVING TO THE CITY

Will Spend Winter Months in Georgetown Home of Major and Mrs. French.

SECRETARY TO LEAVE TOWN

Major and Mrs. French Are to Occupy New Quarters at Fort Myer.

Secretary of War Baker will go to New York tomorrow to remain until the end of the week.

Secretary and Mrs. Baker are moving today from "In the Woods," their summer home, to 3017 N. street, which they have sublet from Major and Mrs. W. E. French for the winter months.

This is the first time in many years that a Cabinet officer has lived west of Rock Creek in the historic old world neighborhood of Georgetown. Secretary and Mrs. Baker have been fortunate in securing a residence which is a fine example of Colonial architecture, furnished in excellent taste and arranged for entertaining.

Diplomat Goes to New York.

Col. Edouardo Raybaud, military attaché of the Argentine embassy, Mrs. Raybaud, and the Misses Raybaud have gone to New York, where Mrs. Raybaud and her daughters will stay October 6 for Spain. They will spend the winter with Mrs. Raybaud's sister, Mrs. Zeldes, at her home in Madrid. Colonel Raybaud has taken an apartment at Rauscher's for the season. Colonel and Mrs. Raybaud will go to Glen Cove, Long Island, tomorrow to be the guests of Miss Alice De Lamar and to join their daughter, Miss Grynka Raybaud, who has been visiting at Glen Cove for the past week.

On Thursday the entire party will return to New York, where Miss De Lamar will give a ball in compliment to Miss Grynka Raybaud, whose birthday anniversary falls on that date.

Col. and Mrs. Richmond F. Davis, U. S. A., have given up their apartment at Stoneleigh Court, and will be guests of Mrs. J. H. Arthur, at 1719 Lamont street, until they leave town tomorrow for a short post at San Francisco. Colonel Davis made a short trip to New York last week, returning to town yesterday.

The round B. activities in compliment to Colonel and Mrs. Davis will close this evening with a stag dinner at the Chase Club, at which the colonel will be the guest of honor.

Brig. Gen. Erasmus Weaver, U. S. A., and Joseph E. Davis, of the Federal Trade Commission, will be hosts, and the guests will include a number of prominent officials and distinguished army and navy officers.

Mr. Walter Wells entertained informally at luncheon today at his apartment in the Rochambeau in compliment to Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Bowers in New York.

Mrs. Thomas W. Bowers, who has opened her home in Connecticut avenue for a month, has gone to New York for a short stay. She is stopping at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. She will return to Washington tomorrow.

Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson are expected at the Hot Springs, Va., today with Fredman, of New York, who will play in the middle of the month. Mrs. Thompson has passed the summer at the Hot Springs, where she has been in California the greater part of the season.

Chester Lockwood has left Washington for Cambridge, Mass., where he has entered Harvard University.

Miss Florence Farnsworth has returned to Washington after extensive visits in Cape May and Atlantic City.

Dr. and Mrs. Wells Return.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells returned to town Saturday from New York, where they spent a few days last week and where they were extensively entertained. Their small daughter, Miss Eleanor Wells, who was in a giraffe camp at Belgrade Lakes, Me., all summer, accompanied them. Mrs. Wells will stay with her grandmother, Mrs. Gibson, until Christmas.

Mrs. William Wheaton is expected in Washington Sunday for a few days and will stay at the Shoreham. Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton will be at White Sulphur Springs all summer and expect to keep open their cottage there until December.

Major and Mrs. French will take possession of their new quarters at the Officers' Club at Fort Myer today. Major French, who has retired some years ago, was pressed into active service at Fort Myer when the Mexican trouble first broke out, and has recently been promoted from captain to the rank of major.

Gone to West Virginia.

Mrs. Barnett, wife of Chester Barnett, formerly lieutenant, U. S. A., who spent the past week at the Shoreham, left town yesterday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, in Elkins, W. Va., where she has been the greater part of the summer. Mrs. Barnett is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Elchberger at their summer home, near Rockville for several days last week.

Miss Marie E. Talbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Talbert, will be married at 5 o'clock tonight to Joseph F. Rockfeller, at her father's home, 1001 M street southeast. Rev. E. Holmes Lamar, pastor of the Fayette Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of Baltimore, will officiate.

After the ceremony the couple will take a two-day trip through the East, stopping at Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and New York. They will take an apartment in the Saratoga, Seventh and East Capitol streets, upon their return on October 15.

Miss Talbert will be given in marriage by her father. The maid of honor will be Miss Pauline Lyles, and Thomas Clinton will be best man.

Countess Henryton Scherr Thos. daughter of Henry White, who arrived in this country shortly before the death of her mother, will sail today for Berlin. She will be accompanied by her children, who spent last winter in Washington with Mr. and Mrs. White. Countess Scherr Thos. has been with her father in Lenox.

TO BE FETED IN NEW YORK

MISS GRYNKA RAYBAUD,
Daughter of the military attaché of the Argentine embassy, Colonel Raybaud and Mme. Raybaud. She will be guest of honor at a ball in New York Thursday evening.

BISHOP HARDING TO ENTERTAIN PRELATES

Distinguished Visitors to Washington Will Be Accompanied by Daughters.

The Rt. Rev. H. W. Yeatman-Biggs, Lord Bishop of Worcester, England, and Bishop Montgomery, formerly Bishop of Tasmania, Australia, and now secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and delegate appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury to the triennial conference in St. Louis, will arrive in town October 6 to be the guests of the Bishop of Washington and Miss Harding at their home in the Cathedral Close. Each prelate will be accompanied by his daughter. Bishop Montgomery is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Montgomery, who has been a guest of the Cathedral School for Boys. Owing to the illness of her sister, Miss Douglas, who has been a delightful hostess in assisting her brother-in-law, Bishop Harding, since the death of Mrs. Harding, will not be able to go West with the party.

Is Hostess at Dinner.

The Duchess de Chaulnes, formerly Miss Theodora Shonts, entertained at dinner last evening at White Sulphur Springs. Her guests were the Duchess of Manchester, who was Miss Zimmerman, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Julian, of Cincinnati; Mrs. James B. McDonald, and Miss Isabelle May, both of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Julian motored over from Hot Springs with the Duchess of Manchester as their guest.

Mrs. May arrived at White Sulphur Springs yesterday from Southampton, where her parents, Col. and Mrs. Henry May have a summer home. She spent the early summer in Germany with her sister, Frau von Rath.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, who spent a few days in Washington last week, returned yesterday to their estate at Elkins, W. Va., where they intend passing the winter.

Mrs. A. S. Barker, widow of Rear Admiral Barker, U. S. N., who passed the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Corning, in Albany, has returned to her home in N street for the winter.

Lease An Apartment.

Maj. Gen. George F. Elliott, U. S. M. C., retired, and Mrs. Elliott have leased an apartment at the Marlborough to be near their son-in-law and daughter, Maj. Harold Reisinger, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Reisinger.

Gen. Horatio G. Gibson will go to New York to attend the annual dinner of the Astor Society at the University Club, October 15. The club was formed in Mexico City October 13, 1847, and General Gibson, who is now vice president, will be accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. George Wallace, who will accompany her father to New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Rihitt Stuart have returned to their residence in Connecticut avenue from their cottage at Ventnor, N. J., where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fowler, of Washington, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Fowler, to Earl McDonald, also of this city. The ceremony was performed at St. John's Church, Philadelphia, at noon Wednesday, and was attended by the bride's parents, her aunt, Miss Kitty Bayne, and a small group of relatives and friends of the bridegroom.

The charming bride wore a becoming dark blue tailored suit, with a hat to match, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Mr. McDonald is now on a wedding tour in the North. They will be at home at 19 Eighth street northeast after October 15.

JUDGE ANDERSON'S BODY COMING HERE

Funeral Services Expected to Be Held at Metropolitan Church Thursday.

The body of Justice Thomas Henry Anderson, of the District Supreme Court, who died in Denver, Saturday, will leave that city tonight for Washington, according to a message received here this morning from P. F. Lilley, son-in-law of the jurist.

It is expected that the body will arrive in Washington, Thursday morning, at 8:30 o'clock. Funeral arrangements have not been completed as yet, but present plans are for the services to take place Thursday afternoon or Friday morning at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Judge Anderson was a trustee. The body will be taken either at Cambridge, Ohio, or Addison, Pa.

Court Adjourns.

Out of respect for the dead jurist the District Supreme Court adjourned today until next Monday at 10 a. m. Notification of the death of Justice Anderson was given to the court in general term this morning by A. A. Hoshling, Jr., president of the District Bar Association.

In expressing the deep regret of the members of the bar, Mr. Hoshling asked that the court adjourn for a week. He said the association would later ask the court to set aside a day on which memorial services could be held.

Justice Covington, in briefly eulogizing Justice Anderson, spoke of the profound sorrow with which the justice's death was felt by the court. He said the association would later ask the court to set aside a day on which memorial services could be held.

Mr. Hoshling also notified the District Court of Appeals of Justice Anderson's death, and regret was expressed by Chief Justice Chase. An adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Ill Some Months Ago.

Judge Anderson had suffered an attack of jaundice here some months ago, and had gone to Colorado, where he thought the altitude would prove beneficial.

He wrote his secretary, George E. Sullivan, on September 17, that he was about to return to the District. The day before he was to leave Denver for his home, he was stricken with the illness.

Judge Anderson had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Pliny Lilley, in Denver. Two years later he was stricken with the illness. His wife and daughter were at his bedside when he died.

Judge Anderson was born in Belmont county, Ohio, June 6, 1848, and received his education in the public schools and Mt. Union College, Ohio. He married in 1872, Judge Anderson was admitted to the bar in 1871.

Judge Anderson practiced law in Cambridge, Ohio, until 1889, when he was appointed Minister to Bolivia, which post he held to 1893. He practiced law in Washington after his return from Bolivia, and was appointed United States district attorney in 1894. He was later appointed to the Supreme Court of the District.

Both branches of the Police Court were notified of the death of Justice Anderson, and adjournment was ordered out of respect for the deceased. The adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Fires Do Damage in

Two Residences Here

Fire originating in a buffet in the dining room did $500 damage to the home of Abraham Roberts, 1735 U street northwest this morning.

The family had all gone out when the fire broke out. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the buffet. The fire was extinguished after it had done $500 damage. The origin is not known. No one was burned.

Visiting Miss Burke.

Mrs. Howe, wife of Lieut. Comdr. Alfred G. Howe, stationed in Newport, is visiting Miss Martha Burke at Loom Lake, N. Y.

Mrs. Stuart, wife of Dr. Garden

Stuart, formerly of Washington, now residing in Carolina, is visiting Mrs. John Ecker.

Mrs. E. B. Andrews, of this city, will go to Newport this week for another extended stay at "The Reef," Price's Neck, Newport.

J. C. O'Laughlin is making a short stay at the Netherlands in New York. Miss Emily Tuckerman has as her guest in Stockbridge, Mrs. Arthur W. Swann.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hagood, of the Grafton, have gone to New York for an extended stay. They are stopping at the Wolcott Hotel.

Mrs. Frederick D. Grant, who has been staying at the Manhattan Hotel in New York, returned to Washington last night. She will reside at the Hotel Lafayette until she opens her residence for the winter.

Return to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Johnson have returned to Washington from their place at Monterey, Pa., and have reopened their home in Sixteenth street. They will present their eldest daughter, Miss Nellie Johnson, to society in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Elchberger, who have been with Mrs. Elchberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Joy Edson, at their summer home, "Joy Farm," near Rockville, Md., since early spring, will open their home in Bancroft place tomorrow.

James Hyatt, of San Blas, Panama, who is making an extended stay at the Willard, has gone to New York for a short visit. He will return to town Wednesday.

Head of New Branch of Work at Y. M. C. A.

GUY C. HENDRY.

RELIGIOUS INTERVIEW SYSTEM AT Y. M. C. A.

Plan Whereby Members Can Always Get Adviser on Any Topic in Effect Soon.

The Religious Interview plan of the Y. M. C. A. by which a young man can confer with a mature, Christian man on business, religious, physical, or social problems, will be put into practice shortly by Guy C. Hendry, assistant religious work director of the association.

Mr. Hendry is a graduate of Middlebury College in Vermont, and has been acting pastor of the New Haven Congregational Church for three years. He carried on this work in connection with his regular college course.

This experience in the ministry gives Mr. Hendry a qualification that will be a big asset to him in his work in the religious work department.

It is proposed to extend to each man in the association an opportunity to discuss with Mr. Hendry any problem that is of interest. This problem will serve as an opening by which an individual's spiritual manhood can be ascertained. By this method, it is expected, many dangers that ordinarily come to the young man can be avoided.

DON'T HAVE GRAY HAIR

It's Unnecessary—Q-Ban Darkens It Evenly—No Dye.

No matter how gray your hair, prematurely gray, faded, bleached, streaked with gray, all you need to do is to shampoo your hair and scalp once a day with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. This is a very pleasant experience, and after a few applications you will be delighted to see all your gray hair gradually turn to an even, beautiful dark shade. Q-Ban acts on roots, making hair and scalp healthy, restoring the color glands to all your gray hair. It is naturally darkened and entire head of hair becomes soft, fluffy, long, thick, and of such an even, beautiful, soft, dark shade no one could tell you had used Q-Ban. Also stops dandruff and falling hair, leaving your hair fascinating and abundant, without even a trace of gray showing.
